Crl.O.P.No.21796 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.134 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant who is the son of the petitioner and also assaulted him. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and the defacto complainant is none other than the son of the petitioner. Since the petitioner did not partitioned the property, a false complaint has been foisted against him. Hence, he seeks for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to property dispute, the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant who is the son of the petitioner and assaulted him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Thereby, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration of the facts and submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Chidambaram, Cuddalore District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
