A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.534 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding removal of encroachment in the Government land, the petitioner abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that due to previous vengeance against the petitioner, a false complaint has been registered. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner is an habitual offender and that there are four previous cases similar in nature including a case under Section 307 IPC, pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into account the nature of offence and the previous antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
