Crl.O.P.No.21974 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.502 of 2022, on the file of the respondent, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to pathway dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, intimidated and assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and false complaint has been given as against the petitioners. He would further submit that counter case has also been filed against the defacto complainant in Crime No.501 of 2022. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that there was pathway dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him . He would further submit that the petitioners also lodged counter case against the defacto complainant. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Namakkal, on condition that each
