Crl.O.P.No.21999 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.213 of 2022, on the file of the respondent, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the matrimonial dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted her. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are no way connected with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the petitioners have also lodged a counter complaint against the defacto complainant in Crime No.212 of 2022. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to the matrimonial dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted her. He would further submit that no external injuries has been sustained by the defacto complainant. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sholinghur, on condition that each petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
