Crl.O.P.No.22042 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.255 of 2022, on the file of the respondent, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the petitioners waylaid the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language and attacked him with stones on his head and caused injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and false complaint has been foisted as against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the defacto complainant while driving his vehicle, the petitioners waylaid him and attacked with stones on his head thereby, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and the fact that the victim has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned III Metropolitan Magistrate, George Town, Chennai, on condition that each petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
