Crl.O.P.No.21836 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 484, 465, 468, 471 and 420 of IPC read with Sections 4(1)(aaa), 4(1-A) of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act in Crime No.1335 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons were found in illegal possession of Express Brandy – 12 Box, Black Pearl Brandy – 06 Box and without label – 1 Box each containing 48 bottles (180 ml each) of spurious liquor worth about Rs.2,24,640/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession of the arrested co-accused. He would further submit that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners are working in a TASMAL bar and along with the other accused persons, they were selling spurious liquor in the black market. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against them. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif Judge/Judicial Magistrate, Kurinjipadi, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for
