Crl.O.P.No.22022 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.116 of 2022, on the file of the respondent, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to the dispute regarding non-payment of Electricity bill, the petitioners along with other accused persons abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with hands and beer bottle thereby, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and false complaint has been given as against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with beer bottles. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and the fact that the victim has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Pallipattu, on condition that each petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
