4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner and other accused were found to be in possession of 1.200 Kgs of Ganja and the contraband has been recovered from them. Further, there is one previous case pending against the petitioner in similar nature. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, and also taking note of the fact that there is one previous case pending against him in similar nature, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed for the present.
