Crl.O.P.No.22082 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 4(1)(aaa) of Tamilnadu Prohibition Act, in Crime No.322 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.08.2022, the main accused and the petitioner were found to be in possession of 1018 bottles (1024 litres) of foreign liquor. On seeing the police, the petitioners and the main accused ran away from the place of occurrence and the respondent police had recovered 1018 bottles of foreign liquor. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners are not the owner of the liquor. He would also submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioners and without prejudice, the petitioners are prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- towards any Welfare Scheme of the Government. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners were found in possession of 1018 bottles (1024 litres) of foreign liquor. On seeing the police, the petitioners ran away from the place of occurrence and the respondent police had recovered 1018 bottles of foreign liquor. He would also submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, and also taking note of the fact that the petitioners have come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- to the any Welfare Scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioners deposit the said amount, it would not amount to admission of their guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
