Crl.O.P.No.22420 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 353 and 34 of IPC in Crime No.65 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant, who are government officials and prevented them from discharging their official duty. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that petitioners belong to a communist party and when they protested against the government officials, a false complaint has been given. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor (Puducherry) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant, who are government officials and prevented them from discharging their official duty. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, No.2, Karaikal, on condition that the each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
