Crl.O.P.No.22233 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.327 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners had waylaid the defacto complainant and assaulted him with aruval, due to which, he had sustained injuries on head. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that due to previous enmity, the defacto complainant had picked up quarrel with the petitioner and lodged a false complaint against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioners had assaulted the defacto complainant with aruval, resulting him in sustaining injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Mannargudi, Thiruvarur District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees
