Crl.O.P.No.22252 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 4(1)(aaa) r/w 4(1-A) of TNP Act in Crime No.192 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the police were on regular patrol, the petitioner and the other accused were found to be in possession of 296 bottles (180 ml) of Pondy brandy. On seeing the police, the petitioner and the other accused ran away from the place of occurrence and the respondent police had recovered 296 bottles of brandy. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- towards any Welfare Scheme of the Government. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner and the other accused were found to be in possession of 296 bottles (180 ml) of Pondy brandy-. On seeing the police, the petitioner and the other accused ran away from the place of occurrence and the respondent police had recovered 296 bottles of Pondy brandy. He would also submit that there is 1 previous case as against the petitioner in similar nature. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both the learned counsel and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- to the any Welfare Scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
