The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 & 506(i) of I.P.C read with Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Women Harassment Act, in Crime No. 364 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a love affair between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. On the date of occurrence, there was a wordy quarrel between them, due to which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and also abused in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to wordy quarrel, the defacto complainant had lodged a false complaint against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and also abused in filthy language. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Kallakurichi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further
