

Crl.O.P.No.22293 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.339 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner had waylaid the defacto complainant and assaulted him with hands, due to which, he had sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and there is a money dispute existing between the parties and in order to wreck the vengeance, the defacto complainant had foisted a false case against the petitioner. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner had waylaid the defacto complainant and assaulted him with hands, resulting him in sustaining injuries. Further, the injured has been treated as outpatient. However, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.
