ORDER

[Made by P.N.PRAKASH, J.]

The petitioner is the wife of the detenu Annamalai, son of Parasuraman, aged about 29 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in Rc.No.C2/28446/2021 dated 23.10.2021, holding him to be a "Bootlegger", as contemplated under Section 2(b) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though the learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several other grounds to assail the order of detention, he has mainly focused his argument on the ground that the arrest intimation has not been fully translated in vernacular language. He further submitted that the detaining authority, while detaining the detenu, has not furnished the legible copies of the documents relied on by him. This deprived the detenu from making effective representation. Therefore, on these grounds, the detention order is liable to be quashed.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the habeas corpus petition by filing his counter.

5. On consideration of the submissions made on either side and upon perusal of the documents available on record especially Page Nos.40 and 41 of the booklet, it is clear that the arrest intimation has not been fully translated in vernacular language. Thus the impugned detention order is liable to be set aside on this ground.

In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in Rc.No.C2/28446/2021 dated 23.10.2021, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Annamalai, son of Parasuraman, aged about 29 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
