On seeing the police, the petitioner and the other accused ran away from the place of occurrence and the respondent police had recovered 26 bottles of brandy. He would also submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both the learned counsel and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to the any Welfare Scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal
