ORDER

[Made by P.N.PRAKASH, J.]

The petitioner is the wife of the detenu Perumal, male, aged 46 years, S/o.Gopal. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in D.O.No.96/2021-C2 dated 29.10.2021, holding him to be a "Bootlegger", as contemplated under Section 2(b) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

5. The Detention Order in question was passed on 29.10.2021. The petitioner made a representation on 30.11.2021. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 06.12.2021. The remarks were duly by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Perumal, male, aged 46 years, S/o.Gopal, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
