The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 342 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No. 147 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant while riding his two wheeler, the petitioners relative hit the complainant vehicle and fell down, due to which, she sustained injuries. There was a wordy quarrel between them due to which, the petitioners had assaulted the defacto complainant and abused him in a filthy language and also intimidated him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police would submit there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant due to which, the petitioners have assaulted the complainant and also intimidated him. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court-II, Thiruvallur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

Crl.O.P.No.22665 of 2022

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
