Crl.O.P.No.22728 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.383 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, on the date of occurrence, the petitioners along with other accused person attacked the de-facto complainant using wooden-log and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused were released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to civil dispute, on the date of occurrence the petitioners along with other accused person attacked the de-facto complainant using wooden-log and threatened him with dire consequences. The injured has been discharged from the hospital on 03.09.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the co-accused were released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate Court – I at Ulundurpet Kallakurichi District, on condition that the each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for
