Crl.O.P.No.22675 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.411 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of love affair between the daughter of the defacto complainant and the first petitioner, there was a wordy quarrel and during the quarrel, the petitioners along with other accused abused the defacto complainant, intimidated him and also assulted him. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the love affair between daughter of the defacto complainant and the first petitioner, the defacto complainant has given a false complaint against the petitioners. Hence, he seeks for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that on account of love affair between the daughter of the defacto complainant and the first petitioner, the petitioners along with other accused abused the defacto complainant, intimidated him and also assulted him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Thereby, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration of the facts and submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundhurpet, Kallakurichi District on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each
