The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No. 228 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the defacto complainant and the petitioner's family. Due to which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant using his hands and threatened him with a dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the defacto complainant attacked the petitioner's brother one Gnanasekaran and he was hospitalised for two days. He would further submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit due to previous enmity, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with hands and also threatened him. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Uthiramerur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs
