Crl.O.P.No.22816 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 279, 337, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.420 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners had driven the tractor in rash and negligent manner and dash against the de-facto complainant. When the same was questioned, they had used abusive filthy language and also attacked the de-facto complainant with wooden log and iron rod. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioners had driven the tractor in rash and negligent manner and dash against the de-facto complainant. When the same was questioned, they had used abusive filthy language and also attacked the de-facto complainant with wooden log and iron rod. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 08.09.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
