1. Challenge in this appeal is made to the order dated 29.04.2022 recorded on W.P. No.23634 of 2017. This appeal is by the third respondent.

2. The original writ petitioner has retired on 31.03.2015. Since his retirement dues, including gratuity etc., is not paid, he had approached this Court and learned single Judge has directed the State Authorities (respondent nos. 1 and 2) to ensure that the terminal benefits of the petitioner, with interest, as stated earlier is immediately paid. 3. The State is not in appeal. We do not see any reason to interfere with the order passed by learned single Judge, at the instance of the third respondent. This appeal therefore needs to be dismissed.

4. We also take note of the order of this Court dated 29.09.2022. We had requested the State Authorities, through the Commissioner of Labour of the State to look into the matter. No response has come from the said authority.

5. The direction of learned single Judge is confirmed, consequence to follow.

6. For the reasons recorded above, this writ appeal is dismissed. No costs. Connected miscellaneous petition would not survive.
