ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 26.08.2022 for the offences punishable under Sections 6(b), 24(i) of Cigarette and other Tobacco Products Acts, 2003 r/w Section 328 of IPC, in Crime No.137 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 2 Kilo 570 grams of banned tobacco products. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit the considerable amount to any welfare scheme of the Government and hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of banned tobacco products. He would further submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of smuggling of tobacco products, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) as a non refundable deposit to "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Vellore Medical College Hospital, Adukkamparai, Vellore", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that
