Crl.O.P.No.23180 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA.J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324, 307 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.268 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity on account of the petitioner turns hostile in murder case, there was a quarrel, due to which, A1/petitioner to A3 had assaulted to defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that in fact the defacto complainant had assaulted the petitioner at the time of occurrence and had given a false case against him. Based on that incident, the petitioner had already lodged a complaint before respondent police on 14.09.2022 and a case has been registered in Crime No.267 of 2022 . Later as a counter blast, the defacto complainant had given a complaint in Crime No.268 of 2022. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with the other accused had assaulted the defacto complainant. He would submit that it is a counter case and there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and also taking note of the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from
