A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA.J,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 307 of IPC in Crime No.220 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner in an inebriated condition had assaulted the defacto complainant with broken beer bottle, due to which, she had sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner's wife was having illicit affair and when it was questioned by the petitioner, a false complaint has been given against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner had assaulted the defacto complainant with broken beer bottle, resulting her in sustaining injuries. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Alandur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction
