Crl.O.P.No.23371 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA.J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.421 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners had criminally intimidated, abused and assaulted the defacto complainant with machete, due to which, he had sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would submit that due to previous enmity, the defacto complainant has foisted a false case against the petitioners. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that on account of enmity existing between the two groups, the petitioners had assaulted the defacto complainant with machete, due to which, he had sustained simple injuries and he had been treated as outpatient. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking note of the facts and submission made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that there is no previous cases pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundurpet at Kallakurichi District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a seperate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the
