4.Per contra, the learned Public Prosecutor (Pondicherry), appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner, along with other accused have colluded and they have induced the victim to pay a sum of Rs.6,50,000/- for obtaining jobs in abroad and had cheated the de-facto complainant. He would further submit that the said amount has been transferred from the account of the first accused to the account of the petitioner/A2 and therefore, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required and thereby, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into account the nature of offence and the said amount has been transferred from the account of the first accused to the account of the petitioner/A2 and custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
