ORDER

This petition has been filed to quash the private complaint filed against the petitioner, who has been arrayed as A 6, which was taken on file by the Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate (Economic Offences-II), Egmore, Chennai in E.O.C.C.No.187 of 2013.

2. The crux of the allegation is that at the time of inspection, it was found that the Company has not maintained proper books of accounts and it is also noticed from the Auditors Report that under the caption "Immovable properties held in Trust", the Auditors have not verified the title deeds in respect of those properties and the value of the property has also not been mentioned and therefore, the Company has contravened the provisions of Section 209(1) of the Companies Act and hence, the present prosecution has been initiated against the petitioner and other accused.

3. A perusal of the complaint reveals that totally 17 people have been arrayed as accused. It appears that out of seventeen, eight of them are ex-directors and all others are said to be Directors of the first accused. The entire allegation in the private complaint does not make any specific averments against any of the accused therein. Further, no allegation is made against the present petitioner regarding his role for such violation. It is also brought to the notice of the Court that at the relevant point of time, the petitioner was not a director of the company. The petitioner was inducted as a director only on 26.04.2010 and resigned from the post on 11.02.2014, Form No.DIR-11 is also available on record, which has not been disputed by the other side.

4. Though it is the contention of the learned counsel appearing for the respondent that the administration of the company has not been properly done, to invoke the penal provisions against the petitioner, it should be shown by the respondent that on the date of the alleged resolution or violation, the petitioner was the director or responsible for the affairs of the company. In similar nature of cases, this Court in Crl.O.P.Nos.21861 to 21865 of 2016 has quashed the proceedings initiated against the present petitioner mainly on the ground that he became the Director of the Church of South India Trust Association only on 26.04.2010 and resigned from the directorship on 11.02.2014 and on the date of violation he was not a director. In such view of the matter, the prosecution initiated against the petitioner is certainly not maintainable.

5. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the proceedings in E.O.C.C.No.187 of 2013 pending on the file of learned Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate (Economic Offences-II), Egmore, Chennai is quashed. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
