Crl.O.P.No.23287 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA.J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.341 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioners had waylaid the defacto complainant and assaulted him with iron rod, due to which, he had sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that due to a wordy quarrel, a false complaint has been given against the petitioners. He would submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioners. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that due to civil dispute, the petitioners had waylaid the defacto complainant and assaulted him with iron rod, due to which, he had sustained injuries. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking note of the facts and submission made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Hosur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five
