2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were in possession of 50 liters of I.D. Arrack. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are no way connected with the alleged offence. Hence he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the investigation is not yet completed and if the petitioners were granted anticipatory bail, there is a possibility that they will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation. He would further submit that there are 4 cases pending as against the petitioners and hence he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
