ORDER

WEB COPY This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to quash the FIR in Crime No.398/2022 on the file of the first respondent police.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the counsel for the defacto complainant/2nd respondent submitted that, based on the complaint given by the de-facto complainant, the respondent police registered a case in Crime No.398 of 2022 against the petitioner for the offence of job racketing, punishable under Sections 406 and 420 IPC. He further submitted that, today, the petitioner has paid the entire amount of Rs.3,00,000/-, to the defacto complainant, which was received by him on the false promise of getting job to the de-facto complainant. Accordingly, the dispute between them is settled out of Court and hence, the de-facto complainant do not want to proceed the criminal proceedings against the petitioner and seeks to withdraw the case, by compounding the offences in Crime No.398 of 2022 . To that effect, the de-facto complainant has also filed an affidavit before the Court.

Crl.O.P.No.24936 of 2022

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner also reiterated the above facts and prayed to quash the FIR in Crime No.398 of 2022, registered against the petitioner.

4. Recording the submission made by the learned counsel for the second respondent/de-facto complainant and also based on the affidavit filed by the de-facto complainant, the FIR in Crime No.398 of 2022 registered against the petitioner under Sections 406 and 420 IPC is quashed.

5. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition is allowed.
