5. The Original Petition has been filed seeking Letters of Administration without Will relating to the estate of G.Vasanth, who had died on 30.12.2014. It is stated that the respondents had not objected to the grant of Letters of Administration but pending the Petition, the first respondent died, necessitating impleading her legal representatives.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the respondents also.

7. In view of the fact that it is only appropriate that all the legal representatives are brought on records, these Applications are allowed. The delay of 504 days is condoned and the abatement is set aside and the legal representatives are brought on record.
