ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.08.2022 for the offences punishable under Sections 166, 167, 420 & 120(b) IPC @ 166, 167, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 409, 120(b) of IPC, in Crime No.01 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other officials and staff of the Tamil Nadu Civil Supplies Corporation (TNCSC), Vellore region, by committing malpractices and irregularities in the procurement of paddy for the direct purchase centres in Vellore and Ranipet, had violated the procurement procedures and guidelines issued by the TNCSC during the period from 01.10.2020 to 30.09.2020 and made a wrongful gain to the tune of rupees One Crore as commission. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is working as an Superintendent at Business Section, TNCSC, Vellore and she has no direct access with the merchants and she has no role in the procurement process and she has been unnecessarily roped in into this case, since she happens to work during the relevant period. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 10.08.2022. He would also submit that the respondent have not taken police custody of the petitioner and the major part of the investigation is over and the custodial interrogation of the petitioner may not be required any further. He would further submit that the entire prosecution is borne out by documents and the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the respondent in the investigation and she is also ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner colluded with other officials and staff of TNCSC, Vellore with an intention to cheat the farmers by violating the procurement procedures and guidelines, misused the schemes meant for farmers and they have made illegal gain and caused loss to the tune of rupees 315.3 Crores and as far as this petitioner is concerned, she has received a wrongful gain of rupees one Crore from the other accused as commission. Hence, he oppose to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that entire case is borne out by the documents and considering the incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- ( Rupees Twenty Five thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate III, Vellore, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;
