Crl.O.P.No.23873 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.749 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when friend of the petitioner herein had questioned about the illegal intimacy between the de-facto complainant and one Sheeba, there was a wordy quarrel between them, wherein the petitioner along with the co-accused had assaulted the de-facto complainant with iron rod. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that A1 has already been arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that when friend of the petitioner herein had questioned about the illegal intimacy between the de-facto complainant and one Sheeba, there was a wordy quarrel between them, wherein the petitioner along with the co-accused had assaulted the de-facto complainant with iron rod. He would further submit that the alleged occurrence had taken place in the year 2020 and the co-accused has been arrested and released on bail. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
