The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 307 of IPC in Cr.No.211 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are A2 & A3 and their son who is A1 attacked the defacto complainant's son with knife and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that they are no way connected with the alleged occurrence and they have been falsely implicated in this case. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to their rights, are ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submits that the petitioners son attacked the defacto complainant's son and caused injuries. He further submitted that the petitioners son who is A1 has one previous case. Hence, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioners on their own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each to the credit of Crime No.211 of 2022, within a period of fifteen (15) days and on such deposit, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate I, Ponneri on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the
