The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 & 506(1) of IPC in Crime No.921 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, in a birthday celebration the petitioners had attacked the de-facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to family dispute, in a birthday celebration the petitioners had attacked the de-facto complainant. He would further submit that in the above incident, no one had sustained any external injuries. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II at Alandur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand
