The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Section 306 of IPC in Crime No.889 of 2021, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner is the wife of the deceased. Further, the petitioners had abused the deceased with filthy language and attacked him with hands and threatened him with dire consequences. Thereafter, they have taken a sum of Rs.1 Lakh, a laptop, 16 Sovereigns of gold and documents, due to which, the deceased had committed suicide by hanging. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that there was a family dispute between the first petitioner and the deceased, a false case has been given. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the respondent submitted that there was a suicide note written by the deceased and the investigation is almost completed. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
