

CrI.O.P.No. 23987 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner/sole accused who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.660 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner assaulted the de-facto complainant while the de-facto complainant attempted to pacify the wordy quarrel between the petitioner and one Shamugam. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner assaulted the de-facto complainant when the de-facto complainant attempted to pacify the wordy quarrel between the petitioner and one Shamugam. Therefore, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Pollachi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
