ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 21.09.2022 for the offences punishable under Sections 379 & 430 of IPC and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.157 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.09.2022, while the respondent Police and his team were on their routine patrol duty, the petitioner was found in illegal transportation of two units of river sand in his tractor bearing registration No.TN-68-J-9329, without any valid license. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that on 21.09.2022, while the respondent Police and his team were on their routine patrol duty, found the petitioner has illegally transported two units of river sand in his Tractor, without any valid license. He would further submit that there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government and he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has prepared to deposit Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
