

Crl.O.P.No. 24071 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner/A5 who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 341, 323, 324, 506(2) and 365 IPC in Crime No.598 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons have kidnapped the de-facto complainant, had committed theft of his mobile phone, assaulted with iron rod and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the de-facto complainant, had committed theft of his mobile phone, assaulted him with iron rod. Now, the de-facto complainant discharged from the hospital. In this regard, A1 to A4 were arrested and released on bail. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner/A5.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner/A5 with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Thiruppur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix his photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of his Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure his identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police every day at 10.30 a.m. for a period of four weeks and thereafter, every Saturday at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
