

Crl.O.P.No. 24107 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 457, 294(b), 323 427 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.213 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons have abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant due to previous enmity and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and false case has been foisted against him. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the accused persons have abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant due to previous enmity and threatened with dire consequences. Therefore, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambathur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
