The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 4(1)(aaa), 4(1)(A) of TN Prohibition Act 1937 read with Sections 5, 6, 7 of TNRS rules 2000 in Crime No.921 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused was found in illegal transportation of 9,600 litres of rectified spirit. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession statement recorded from the arrested accused. He would submit that 10 accused persons have been arrested, out of which 7 accused persons have been enlarged on bail and one accused has been detained under Act 14. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and without prejudice, petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the Government for any welfare purpose and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused was found in illegal transportation of 9,600 litres of rectified spirit. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and without prejudice, petitioner is undertaking to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the Government for any welfare purpose, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) as non-refundable deposit to the
