CrI.O.P.No.24272 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 427, 435, 380 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.291 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that as a retaliation to the murder in which the de-facto complainant's husband is an accused, the petitioners trespassed into the house of the de-facto complainant and caused damages to the house-hold articles and threatened them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that petitioners' relative was murdered by the de-facto complainant's husband and in respect of the same, a case in Crime No.221 of 2022 was registered and only as a pre-emptive measure, the de-facto complainant has foisted a false complaint as against them as if the petitioners have trespassed and taken away the house-hold articles. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that it is a case and case in counter. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned J.M., No.II, Thiruppathur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who
