JUDGMENT

When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned counsel for the appellant informed the Court that the petrol bunk has been dismantled and all the machineries belonging to the appellant were taken by them. They have also paid a sum of Rs.25,45,155/-, which is the amount less the TDS for the total arrears of Rs.28,27,950/- as per the decree amount. The possession has also been taken over by the plaintiff through Court.

2. In the light of the above, nothing survives for consideration in this Second Appeal. The appeal is therefore disposed of recording the above fact. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
