Crl.O.P.No.24882 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.281 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners herein threatened the defacto complainant to give his daughter in marriage with the first petitioner. When the defacto complainant refused for the same, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant with a beer bottle resulting in injuries. The petitioners further threatened the defacto complainant and his relative with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners herein threatened and compelled the defacto complainant to give his daughter in marriage with the first petitioner. When the defacto complainant rejected the proposal, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant with a beer bottle resulting in injuries. The petitioners further threatened the defacto complainant and his relative with dire consequences. He would further submit that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for both sides. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen
