Crl.O.P.No.24745 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 448, 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.800 of 2020, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners had trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused, intimidated and also assaulted her with iron rod, due to which, she had sustained injuries. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. Due to a wordy quarrel, a false complaint has been given against the petitioners. He would further submit that it is an occurrence of the year 2020 and now only the petitioners came to know about the registration of the case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners had trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused, intimidated and also assaulted her with iron rod, due to which, she had sustained injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and also of the fact that the occurrence of the year 2020, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, each of the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, kallakurichi & District on condition that
