Crl.O.P.No.24899 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.99 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a civil dispute, the petitioners had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case in counter. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that due to a civil dispute, the petitioners had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him. He would further submit that there is a case in counter in Crime No.100 of 2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for both sides. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate, Uthiramerur, Kancheepuram District, on condition that the each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the first petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 am for a period of three weeks and thereafter every Saturday at 10.30 am, until further orders and the second petitioner shall report before the respondent police every day at 10.30 am for a period of one week and thereafter as and when required.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
