Crl.O.P.No.24951 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 336, 427 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.462 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused person, due to political enmity with respect to conducting inauguration ceremony of Anganwadi Centre and erecting inscription, attacked the defacto complainant and his family members and caused damage to the two wheelers and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and due to political enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that in fact the de-facto complainant and others have assaulted the petitioners and his family members in respect of which, a case has been registered in Crime No.461 of 2022 on the complaint given by the first petitioner and it is a case in counter. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to political enmity with respect to conducting inauguration ceremony of Anganwadi Centre and erecting inscription, the accused persons have attacked the defacto complainant and his family members and caused damage to the two wheelers and also attacked them wooden log. He would further submit that it is a counter case. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
