CrI.O.P.No.25126 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 427, 506(ii) & 379 of IPC in Crime No.579 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner waylaid the de-facto complainant, abused, assaulted and had taken away cash of Rs.11,500/- from the de-facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the cousin brother of the petitioner had taken housing loan from the de-facto complainant's Company. Due to COVID-19, the relative of the petitioner was unable to re-pay the amount. Whereas the Company's personnels threatened the petitioner and his relatives. Hence, there was a wordy quarrel between them and a false complaint has been given as if they have taken away Rs.11,500/- from the de-facto complainant. He would further submit that the petitioner is innocent and there is no previous case pending against him. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner waylaid the de-facto complainant, abused, assaulted and had taken away cash of Rs.11,500/- from the de-facto complainant. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
